

2021 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This corporate governance statement sets out Stemcell United Limited's (Company) current compliance with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Fourth Edition) (ASX Principles and Recommendations). The ASX Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory. However, this corporate governance statement discloses the extent to which the Company has followed the ASX Principles and Recommendations. This corporate governance statement is current as at 29 October 2021 and has been approved by the board of the Company (Board).

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
1. Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1. A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	The Board is responsible for promoting the success of the Company through its overseeing the management of the Company, providing corporate governance of the Company, monitoring the financial performance of the Company, engaging appropriate management developing corporate strategy and performance objectives, and reviewing, ratifying and monitoring systems of risk management and internal control, codes of conduct and legal compliance. Senior executives are responsible for supporting the Chief Executive Officer and assisting the Chief Executive Officer in implementing the running of the general operations and financial business of the Company in accordance with the delegated authority of the Board. Senior executives are responsible for reporting all matters at first instance to the Chief Executive Officer or, if the matter concerns the Chief Executive Officer, directly to the Chair or the lead independent Director, as appropriate. The functions reserved to the Board, and those delegated to senior executives are set out in the Board Charter, which is available on the Company's website: https://scu.com.sg/corporate-governance/

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
1.2. A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes	In determining candidates to join the Board the Board will evaluate the mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity of the existing Board. In particular, the board will seek to identify the particular skills and diversity that will best increase the Board's effectiveness. Consideration will also be given to the balance of independent Directors. Any appointment made by the Board will be subject to ratification by shareholders at the next general meeting. Prior to the appointment of a new director to the Board or senior executive will undertake appropriate checks to ensure that the person's character, experience and education are appropriate for the position which will include criminal history and bankruptcy checks.
1.3. A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Each director and senior executive will have a written letter of appointment or executive contract setting out the terms of his or her appointment.
1.4. The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Board Charter outlines the role, responsibility and accountability of the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chairman, on all matters relating to the proper functioning of the Board. The Company Secretary supports the Board by monitoring that Board policy and procedures are followed, and by coordinating the completion and dispatch of Board agendas, minutes, registers and briefing papers..
1.5. A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and	No	The Company has established a Diversity Policy, which provides the Board with objectives for achieving diversity that are appropriate for the Company. The Board considers due to the size of the Company setting measurable diversity objectives is not appropriate with its practice currently being to hire the most appropriate candidate for the position to be filled having regard to the activities to be undertaken in the role. As the Company increases in size the board will consider setting measurable objectives. The Diversity Policy is available on the Company's website: https://scu.com.sg/corporate-governance/

(c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: (1) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (2) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (3) either: (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. If the entity was in the S&amp;P / ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.
1.6. A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Chair has the overall responsibility for evaluating the Board, any committees established and, when appropriate, individual directors on an annual basis. The method and scope of the performance evaluation will be set by the Chair. The Chairperson may also use an independent adviser to assist in the review. For the year ended 30 June 2021, the Board did undertake a review.

1.7. A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Chief Executive Officer will review the performance of the senior executives. The Chief Executive Officer will conduct a performance evaluation of the senior executives by meeting individually with each senior executive on a yearly basis to review performance against the senior executive's responsibilities as outlined in his or her contract with the Company and against key performance indicators (KPI's) set for the senior executive set by the Chief Executive Officer or the Board. The performance of Executive Directors and the Chief Executive Officer will be reviewed by the Board. The Board (or Directors nominated by the board) will conduct a formal performance evaluation of any Executive Directors annually to review performance against KPIs set for the previous year, and to establish KPIs for the forthcoming year. The Company did undertake a performance appraisal of senior executives during the reporting period.
2. Structure the board to be effective and add value
2.1. The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	No	The Board considers that the Company is not currently of a size, nor are its affairs of such complexity to justify the formation of separate or special committees at this time preferring to manage the Company through the full board of Directors. Matters and duties typically dealt with by a Nomination Committee will be dealt with by the full Board in accordance with adopted policies and procedures. If the Company's activities increase in size, the appointment of Nomination Committee will be reviewed by the Board and implemented if appropriate. The Board devotes time at Board meetings on at least an annual basis to discuss Board succession issues. Where appropriate, all members of the Board are involved in the Company's nomination process, to the maximum extent permitted under the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules. The Board also intends to conduct an annual review of the Company's Board Skills Matrix (in accordance with Recommendation 2.2) to ensure the Board maintains an appropriate balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
2.2. A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	No	The Company has not developed a skills matrix for the Board. It is intended this will be completed and documented during FY22. A profile of each Director setting out their skills, experience, expertise and period of office will be included in the Company's Annual Report. The mix of skills and diversity for which the Board is looking to achieve in its membership is represented by the current Board. The Board comprises directors with significant experience as directors of public companies; marketing experience; accounting and financial expertise; experience in the management and growth of businesses and extensive experience in the industry in which The Company operates. The Board considers that these skills and experience are appropriate for The Company. When contemplating a proposed board appointment, the Board strives to ensure that it considers diversity of experience and any perceived gaps in skills and experience.
2.3. A listed entity should disclose:            (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors;            (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and            (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes	As at 30 June 2021, the Board comprised of seven Directors, five of which are Independent Non-Executive Directors. The Board has a balanced composition with each current Director bringing to the Company a range of complementary skills and experience. Names of the Independent Non-Executive Directors are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mr Paul Rosen</li> <li>• Mr Yanhua Huang</li> <li>• Mr Qi Lu</li> <li>• Mr Paul Stephenson</li> <li>• Mr Francesco Cannavo</li> </ul> In making this determination, the Board has had regard to the independence criteria in the ASX Principles and Recommendations and other facts, information and circumstances that the Board considers relevant. The length of service of each Director is disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.
2.4. A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Yes	The Company considers that the majority of its directors are independent, based on the criteria set out by the ASX Corporate Governance Council.
2.5. The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Yes	The Chairman, Mr. Paul Rosen is an Independent Non-Executive Director and is not the same person as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

2.6. A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	The Company takes care in ensuring that Directors will be able to effectively manage and govern the Company before their nomination as potential Directors. It has not been deemed necessary to devote resources towards ensuring that Directors have the sufficient skills to fulfil their role appropriately. New Directors will be familiarised with the Company by undertaking an induction program, which shall be arranged by the Company Secretary. All Directors are encouraged to undergo continual professional development and, subject to prior approval by the Chairman, all Directors may have access to various resources and professional development training to address any skills gaps.
3. Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly
